

JP Energy Partners to Be Removed from the Alerian Small Cap MLP Index

Dallas, Texas – March 6, 2017 – Alerian announced today that JP Energy Partners (NYSE: JPEP) is expected to be removed from the Alerian Small Cap MLP Index (AMSI) in a special rebalancing.

Special rebalancings are triggered by corporate actions such as mergers, bankruptcies, and liquidations. Pending unitholder approval, JPEP will cease to trade due to its merger with American Midstream Partners (NYSE: AMID). If approved, the rebalancing will take place one trading day after the issuance of a press release indicating that all needed merger votes have passed.

The index will be rebalanced in accordance with its existing methodology. Constituent additions to and deletions from the index do not reflect an opinion by Alerian on the investment merits of the respective securities.

About the Alerian Small Cap MLP Index

The Alerian Small Cap MLP Index is a composite of small-cap energy Master Limited Partnerships (MLPs). The capitalization-weighted index, which represents approximately 10% of total market capitalization, is disseminated real-time on a price-return basis (AMSI) and on a total-return basis (AMSIX).
