

Alerian Appoints Lori Ziebart to Board of Advisors

Dallas, Texas – April 13, 2018 – Alerian announced that Lori Ziebart was appointed to the company’s board of advisors.

Ziebart is the Executive Director of the Master Limited Partnership Association, where she leads the organization’s operations and engagement with policymakers and the investment community to communicate the significant value that MLPs contribute to the US economy.

“We are very pleased to welcome Lori to Alerian’s advisory board,” said President and CEO Kenny Feng. “Her experience in public policy and government affairs will provide us with a unique perspective in our ongoing effort to equip investors to make informed decisions about MLPs and energy infrastructure.”

Ziebart spent several years on Capitol Hill, holding positions of increasing responsibility including tax counsel to the US Senate Finance Committee. She also previously served as Vice President in the Government Relations Group at Goldman Sachs and Vice President of Government Affairs at El Paso Corporation before establishing her own consulting business.

Ziebart graduated with a Juris Doctor from Georgetown University and with a Bachelor of Arts in Politics and History from Mount Holyoke College.

The appointment of Ziebart brings Alerian’s advisory board to seven members, including: Glenn Dance, Managing Director of Partnership Taxation at Grant Thornton; Paula Farrell, Director of Investor Relations and Planning at Magellan Midstream Partners; Tim Fenn, Managing Partner of the Houston Office at Latham & Watkins; Randy Fowler, President of Enterprise Products Partners; Michael Jamieson, Managing Director and Co-Head of North America Energy Investment Banking at Citigroup; and Roy Lamoreaux, Vice President of Investor Relations and Communications at Plains All American Pipeline.

About Alerian

Alerian equips investors to make informed decisions about Master Limited Partnerships (MLPs) and energy infrastructure. Its benchmarks, including the flagship Alerian MLP Index (AMZ), are widely used by industry executives, investment professionals, research analysts, and national media to analyze relative performance.
